Dear Sir,

In forwarding herewith the letter No. Cl. C. 29/42-43 dated 22nd/23rd November 1942 together with its enclosure received from the President, Chitaldrug District Board, I write to state that the District Board have passed a resolution moved by the Chair on 14th November 1942 at a Special Meeting for unveiling the Portrait of Mr. Gandhi in the District Board Hall. I do not think that there is either the necessity or the urgency to unveil the Portrait at present. I am really surprised at the disloyal attitude of the District Board who have thought of unveiling the Portrait of Mr. Gandhi in preference to that of His Highness the present Maharaja of Mysore. The reason for unveiling of the Portrait of Mr. Gandhi is that Mr. Gandhi is one of the greatest men of the World and an embodiment of Truth and non-violence and one who has sacrificed most for the sake of his country. After all he is only the leader of a particular political party and how far his so called principles of Truth and non-violence have been observed by the so called members of the said Political party is evidenced by the daily violent acts of Sabotage both within and outside the State for the past three months. In fact he has done nothing so far as Mysore is concerned so as to deserve his Portrait being unveiled in the Hall of the District Board. I consider that this is the most inopportune moment for the unveiling of the Portrait of any Political Party Leader in the Hall of the District Board. In my opinion it would be a bad precedent to allow the unveiling of the Portrait of any party leader in the District Board Hall though the expenditure incurred in this connection
